Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 - 18 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is a statement of reasons for indication of allowable subject matter.

The prior art fails to teach or suggest the limitations of:

"a minimum bid threshold for postponing the end time for concluding the auction, and a number extensions allowed, the minimum bid threshold representing a total number of a plurality of bids that must be received within a predetermined time of the auction end time...in response to the measured number of bids exceeding the minimum bid threshold and a number of extensions not exceeding the maximum number of extensions allowed, extending a duration of the auction automatically with the exchange server and setting a new auction end time with the exchange server" (as in Claim 1).

Such limitation is present in all independent claims.

It is old and well known in the art for an auction's closing time to be extended to allow submission of addition bids. Traditionally, the auction concludes when no new bids are submitted to the auctioneer.

The instant application distinguishes from these old and well known practices by extending an auction's closing time based upon a bid submission rate exceeding an established bid submission rate (predetermined number of bids during a predetermined timeframe) and setting a maximum number of extensions based upon this bid submission rate.

Do (US PG Pub 2002/0007338) discloses a method/system for extending the closing time of an auction "whenever someone submits a bid" (see para. 62). Neither this pre-grant patent publication, alone nor in combination with others, explicitly discloses nor suggests the feature of extending an auction's closing time based upon a bid submission rate exceeding an established bid submission rate (predetermined number of bids during a predetermined timeframe) and setting a maximum number of extensions based upon this bid submission rate.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
